Willie Hoppe (pronounced Hoppee) Mr. William (Willie) Fredrick Hoppe: The greatest, most enduring Professional "Billiard Champion of the World" in the history of recorded billiards. A man who at the young age of 18 won his first professional world billiard title in 1906 ... and his last and final 52nd World title when retiring in 1952. The IBC is the proud owner of Mr. Hoppe's personal 100 page scrapbook he began in 1906. Bonnie's dinner guests are cordially invited into the IBC's Historical Billiard Room to view selected pages from Mr. Hoppe's "Billiard Treasure of the Ages" 1906-1959 personal scrapbook and the private club's oldest antique billiard table used during the time in which the great billiard behemoth first began his one-of-a-kind professional career over 100 years ago!
